BUCS OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER

OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 25th year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club and has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League. Over the past two decades, he has also evolved into one of Tampa Bay's top community leaders through his dedicated commitment to a variety of philanthropic endeavors.

On the field, the Buccaneers have posted five playoff wins with seven playoff appearances under Glazer's leadership. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the team advanced to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

His dedication to the Bay area was also highlighted by his leadership in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted both Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to Tampa Bay, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. During the 2017 offseason, Glazer once again played a major part in positioning Tampa Bay as the top option to host Super Bowl LV in 2021, when it was decided that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria for hosting the game due to stadium construction delays. At the 2017 Spring League Meeting, Tampa Bay was awarded the game, marking its third selection as a Super Bowl host since the Glazer family's purchase of the team. Glazer is committed to continuing to bring future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' corporate partners with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service. In 2018, Glazer oversaw the process that eventually resulted in a multi-year naming rights partnership for the team's headquarters, now referred to as the AdventHealth Training Center.

A native of Rochester, New York, Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which was honored as Foundation of the Year by the Tampa Bay Sports Commission in 2011.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened in Tampa in 2010, in large part due to the Foundation's gift of $5 million. In addition to serving on the museum's Board of Directors, Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors, the Advisory Board for the Outback Bowl, and has served as chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

Glazer's efforts to remain connected and active in the Tampa Bay community continued in 2015 with his $4 million gift to jump-start the development of a new state-of-the-art Jewish Community Center that opened in West Tampa on December 8, 2016. The facility is named the Bryan Glazer Family JCC and serves an important role in the revitalization of the surrounding area, providing a place for families and community to come together.

In the spring of 2016, Glazer was honored with induction into the Tampa Bay Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his business achievements and community leadership in and around the Tampa Bay region.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Shanna, and their two children.

JOEL GLAZER

OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer is entering his 25th season overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise, along with other members of the Glazer family.

After working alongside his father Malcolm to successfully acquire the Tampa Bay Buccaneers franchise in 1995, Glazer worked tirelessly in conjunction with his brother, Bryan, to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. The Glazers set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort.

Since assuming his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have made seven playoff appearances, including a stretch from 1999-2002 in which Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to appear in the postseason all four years. The organization's signature historical moment occurred at the conclusion of the 2002 season when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005 and 2007.

On January 8, 2019, the Glazer family hired two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians as the team's 12th head coach. Arians first earned Coach of the Year honors in 2012 after guiding the Indianapolis Colts to a 9-3 record while filling in for head coach Chuck Pagano. The following year, Arians was hired as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals where he led the team to three consecutive double-digit win seasons on the way to becoming the franchise's winningest coach with a 49-30-1 record.

Glazer represents the franchise at all league meetings and is very active in a wide range of NFL matters. This past offseason, Glazer, who has served on the league's International Committee since 2007, was appointed chairman of that committee by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. He also continues his responsibilities on the league's Finance and Media committees.

In May of 2017, when it was determined that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria in time for hosting Super Bowl LV, Glazer effectively lobbied to have Tampa Bay named as the host for 2021. It marked the third time during the Glazer family's ownership that the region has been awarded a Super Bowl. Glazer also played an integral role in helping Tampa host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLIII in 2009.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to helping children in the Tampa Bay area through charity initiatives. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened in 2010 and was named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), one Champions League title (2008), four League Cups (2006, 2009, 2010, 2017), one FA Cup (2016), and one Europa League Championship (2017) during his tenure. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by The Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York, native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Entering his 25th season with Tampa Bay in 2019, Owner/Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fan base and the experiences created exclusively for Buccaneers Season Pass Members. Glazer introduced the NFL's first 12-month interest-free payment plan and under his guidance, the Buccaneers have earned the No. 1 ranking in overall customer satisfaction among all 32 NFL clubs an unprecedented five times in the past seven seasons.

With a focus on continually improving the gameday experience for Buccaneers fans, Glazer was instrumental in the $160 million, multi-phase renovation of Raymond James Stadium. Glazer's fan-centric approach to enhancing the in-stadium experience has also featured many technology-based improvements as part of the renovation project. As a result, the Buccaneers in-stadium technology experience has been voted #1 in the NFL by season pass members the past two years.

The first phase of the stadium project included the renovation of all main level concession stands. The second phase was highlighted by the installation of over 31,000 square feet of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone, all new ribbon boards and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the stadium. Also included was an all-new surround sound system, a complete renovation of all luxury suites and the introduction of the all-inclusive Hall of Fame Club.

Phase three of the construction included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, an all-new 10,000-square-foot retail store, expansion of the Mercedes Hall of Fame Club and a new home team locker room. The redesigned Hyundai Club, formally known as the West Stadium Club, provides more than 60,000 square feet of total lounge space – an increase of more than 25 percent from the original event space.

Phase four included renovations of the East Stadium Club that featured the debut of Bar 76 – a 10,000-square-foot, full-service premium sports bar. Bar 76 offers a wide array of culinary stations, one of the area's largest assortments of beers on tap, 58 TVs, and three distinct 15 feet by 9 feet video boards.

In addition to the stadium renovations, the Glazer family constructed the state-of-the-art indoor practice facility at the team's headquarters. The 100,000-square-foot facility features more than 3,000 seats for fans to enjoy training camp practices and special events.

The Glazer family has been devoted to building a winning team from their earliest days as owners. Under the Glazers, the Buccaneers have enjoyed their most successful stretch as a franchise, including seven playoff appearances and four division championships – in addition to winning Super Bowl XXXVII, with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in San Diego on January 26, 2003.

This past offseason, Glazer was part of the process that landed two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians in Tampa Bay. Arians first earned Coach of the Year honors in 2012 as the interim head coach of the Indianapolis Colts. The following year, Arians was hired as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals where he led the team to three consecutive double-digit win seasons on the way to becoming the franchise's winningest coach with a 49-30-1 record.

Away from the football field, the Glazer Family Foundation has provided Tampa Bay area residents with millions of dollars in funding for programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. To that end, the Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa to rave reviews, earning recognition by Women's Day Magazine as one of the Top 10 family museums in the country.

The Glazer family was previously honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Tampa Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are committed to providing aid and support to many philanthropic causes as well as the fine arts, including the Elton John AIDS Foundation, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation and the Los Angeles Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) among others. Ed and Shari also founded the "B.F.F. Bear Program" – which gives away thousands of free teddy bears annually to pediatric patients at Cedars-Sinai Hospital, the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital and Children's Hospital Los Angeles.

In addition to the Buccaneers, Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club – the world's most popular sports team with over 660 million fans worldwide. Manchester United has won twenty english titles and has played in five Champions League final matches, winning three times. In addition, Manchester United is a 12-time winner of the FA Cup. Glazer is also founder and CEO of US Property Trust and US Auto Trust which owns real estate holdings and auto dealerships throughout the United States.

A proud Ithaca College alumnus, Glazer opened the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena on the school's campus. Shari and Ed have three daughters.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ OWNER/PRESIDENT TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS FOUNDATION & GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz has been the driving force behind many of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' innovative, forward-thinking fan engagement and community outreach initiatives, retail activation, and facility design. She is focused on ensuring that the Buccaneers and the Glazer Family Foundation create a lasting positive impact on the Tampa Bay community.

In support of the organization's long-standing commitment to education in the Tampa Bay community, in 2018 Kasewitz launched the Jr. Bucs School Program - the single-largest in-school program in team history. Impacting nearly 200,000 students in 300 schools across the Tampa Bay area, the program helps students both on and off the field by expanding the current physical fitness curriculum and supporting youth literacy in the classroom. In elementary schools, students receive equipment and programming to improve their fitness levels by training like NFL athletes in their physical education classes. Middle school students receive an enhanced flag football curriculum with new flag kits, equipment and expert-led instruction to hone their skills. Off the field, the Jr. Bucs Reading Challenge inspires lifelong learners by incentivizing students to read the most minutes through a series of challenges.

In 2018, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation, in partnership with the City of Tampa Parks and Recreation department, launched the first city-wide, all-girls flag football league in Tampa. Through the Foundation, 24 local recreation centers were outfitted with new equipment, complete with Bucs flag belts and jerseys. In addition, youth athletes and coaches were provided with annual instruction led by industry experts and a chance to develop their craft through NFL-certified clinics and training opportunities at the Buccaneers' AdventHealth Training Center.

Through her relentless pursuit of creating programs that strengthen the community, Kasewitz helped to establish the Social Justice Initiative prior to last season. The Social Justice Initiative includes monthly events focused on youth empowerment, police relations, criminal justice reform, racial equality and workforce development. The initiative is supported by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation Social Justice Fund, a campaign driven by the team's players and matching contributions from the organization that will commit more than $1 million to charitable organizations throughout the region.

Under Kasewitz's leadership, the Buccaneers have also been very active in providing resources and financial assistance for important community causes. In the fall of 2016, the team donated a super-sized Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation shade structure to the City of Tampa for hosting community events and providing valuable covered event space in the heart of downtown Tampa. Additionally, the Buccaneers have raised more than $230,000 in donations towards cancer awareness and patient services benefitting the American Cancer Society, Florida Cancer Specialists Foundation, the AdventHealth Foundation Central Florida and Moffitt Cancer Center.

In recent years, Kasewitz has implemented initiatives designed to strengthen the organization's connection with all segments of its fan base. In 2015, she introduced the Women of Red, a pioneering program focused on enhancing and improving the fan experience. In its highly-anticipated debut season, Women of Red was called "the tipping point for a genuine connection to fans" attracting thousands of women to major events that offered a wide variety of interactive experiences, exclusive behind-the-scenes access, and opportunities to interact with Buccaneers players and legends as well as current executives.

Kasewitz also leads the Glazer Family Foundation, established in 1999, by identifying and creating programs that sustain positive social and economic development for families in underserved local communities. Launching with the Glazer Family Foundation Vision Program, the Foundation provides schoolchildren with an opportunity to receive vision screenings and eye exams without leaving their school campus. In 2009, Kasewitz refreshed the program with the creation of the Vision Mobile, a state-of-the-art interactive mobile eye clinic that provides critical free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title 1 schools. Since inception, the Vision Mobile has performed over 17,500 eye exams and provided more than 16,000 pairs of eye glasses to children in need.

Through a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation provided the funding necessary to open the world-class Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa as part of the Foundation's ongoing dedication to children and families. The one-of-a-kind museum opened on September 25, 2010 and instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53,000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

Since 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation has hosted nearly 18,000 children at Raymond James Stadium at all home games through the Buccaneers Gameday For Kids program. As part of the program, participating students are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with complimentary game tickets, food vouchers and an on-field meeting with Kasewitz prior to the game.

Kasewitz uses her creative expertise to leave a large impact on the Buccaneers' world-class headquarters and training facilities at the AdventHealth Training Center as well as Raymond James Stadium. Additionally, she led the planning and design of the Buccaneers' new 100,000-square-foot indoor practice facility, which was completed prior to the start of the 2017 regular season.

Kasewitz also played a major role in the original aesthetic design of the interior of Raymond James Stadium when it opened in 1998. She remains involved in many of the architectural design elements pertaining to premium areas that are part of the Glazer family's multi-stage, $160-million renovation to Raymond James Stadium. Kasewitz also provided the primary vision and direction used in the design and layout of the Buccaneers Team Store, which debuted during the 2017 season.

One of the signature elements of the AdventHealth Training Center is the Buccaneers Museum which was designed and produced by Kasewitz. The museum brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo; the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders; the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation; and a special display of the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring that celebrates the team's Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders. The centerpiece of the lobby display is the spectacular "Moment of Victory" sculpture, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kasewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club: five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kasewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990 and earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993. Kasewitz and her husband, Joel, reside in Tampa.

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary, rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's long-struggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears — and have them work with maximum efficiency — went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks. Brooks was one of many longtime Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say — and I'm glad — that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a first-round draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

Despite the team's decade-and-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline, but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife, Linda, in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

BRIAN FORD CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Brian A. Ford, Jr. closing in on his 13th year with the organization after joining the Buccaneers in 2006 and in his role, oversees all aspects of the organization's day-to-day business operations and community involvement. He works directly with team ownership to ensure that Buccaneers fans, season pass members and corporate sponsors receive a first- in-class experience. Under Ford's leadership, the Buccaneers have consistently earned top marks among NFL teams for customer service experience, ranking No. 1 in the league's annual Voice of the Fan report five of the past seven seasons.

Ford recently completed the oversight of a comprehensive, multi-phase renovation of Raymond James Stadium that is expected to exceed $160 million. The first stage of this project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase was completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and was highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area in excess of 30,000 square feet – at the time, the third-largest in the NFL. Also included was a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations, which was completed in time for the team's 2017 season, included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, a new, 10,000 square-foot team retail store, expansion of the highly successful Hall of Fame Club, and an expansive new home team locker room. The most recent phase of renovations included a complete renovation of the East Stadium Club along with the opening of a new premium sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76 in the East Club atrium entrance.

In addition to the stadium renovation project, Ford also oversaw the planning and construction of the team's new state-of-the-art indoor practice facility which opened prior to the start of the 2017 regular season. The 100,000 square-foot facility features a full-sized FieldTurf playing surface and includes up to 3,500 seats for viewing of select training camp practices.

For the 2019 season, Ford is working with new food and beverage providers, Legends and retail partner, Fanatics.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

An active participant in and around the Tampa Bay area, Ford is a member of the Pediatric Cancer advisory board in addition to serving on the boards of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay, American Cancer Society CEOs Against Cancer, Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Man & Woman of the Year Leadership Team, Sports Advisory Council for Special Olympics Florida, Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Foundation and Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce. Ford has also been a driving force and participant in the team's annual Cut for a Cure event since its inception in 2012. The event has raised over $315,000 for the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation to date. Prior to the 2016 season, Ford also became a member of the Honorary Commander 927th Air Refueling Wing, which allows business men and women from the local community an opportunity for an up close and personal experience of the policies, programs and overall mission capability of the United States Air Force.

JASON LIGHT GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014. Licht (pronounced LIGHT) owns more than two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with five organizations. In 23 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 191-177 (.519) record, nine playoff appearances, eight division championships, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

This offseason, Licht made a handful of changes to the team's defense, most notably adding free agent defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, a five-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection. Licht also brought in outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and linebacker/safety Deone Bucannon through free agency, while spending the team's first five draft picks on the defensive side of the ball, including linebacker Devin White, selected with the fifth overall pick. In 2018, White was named the Butkus Award winner as the best linebacker in college football.

This offseason, Licht signed left tackle Donovan Smith to a contract extension, after having done the same with left guard Ali Marpet during the 2018 season. Marpet (61st overall) and Smith (34th overall) entered the league as second-round picks in the 2015 NFL Draft. Since the start of the 2015 season, they have been part of an offense that has recorded the fifth-most yard per game in the NFL (375.3), sixth-most passing yards per game (269.8) and seventh-highest yards per play (5.76) during that span, while ranking third in third-down conversion rate. They also helped block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin – 1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks allowed in the league in 2015.

The 2018 season saw quarterback Jameis Winston – whom Licht chose first overall in the 2015 NFL Draft – post career-highs in completion percentage (64.6 pct.), pass yards per game (272.0) and passing touchdown percentage (5.0), despite playing in only 11 games on the season.

Licht's first-ever draft selection as general manager, wide receiver Mike Evans, posted his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season in 2018, joining A.J. Green and Randy Moss as the only players in NFL history to record at least 1,000 receiving yards in each of their first five seasons. In 2018, Evans ranked third in the NFL in receiving yards and set a franchise single season record (1,524) one the way to earning his second career Pro Bowl selection. Prior to the 2018 season, Evans was rewarded with a contract extension.

In the 2018 offseason, Licht transformed the team's defensive line with the additions of Jason Pierre-Paul, Carl Nassib and Vita Vea. Pierre-Paul went on to lead the team in sacks with 12.5 – the most by any Buccaneers player since 2005 (Simeon Rice, 14.0). Acquired through waivers from Cleveland, Nassib finished the season ranked second on the team in sacks, with 6.5. Vea, whom Licht selected with the 12th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, finished the season strong, ranking second among defensive linemen in tackles over the final six weeks.

In the 2017 season, Winston missed games for the first time in his professional career due to a shoulder injury, but still managed career bests in yards per attempt (7.9) and passer rating (92.2), while posting a career-low interception rate (2.5 pct.). Winston's 7.93 yards per attempt set a single-season franchise record and his six 300-yard passing games were the most in a single season in team history. He also ranked in the top five in franchise history in single-season passer rating. Winston averaged 269.5 passing yards per game, which was the sixth-highest mark in the NFL. He also ranked fourth in both yards per attempt and yards per completion (12.43). The former Heisman Trophy winner finished 2017 with the third-most passing yards by a player from their rookie season through their third season, trailing only Andrew Luck and Peyton Manning, while registering the seventh-most passing touchdowns.

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Licht selected six players, with three stepping into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers' first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie. Howard had 565 receiving yards and five touchdowns in 10 games in 2018, before missing the final six weeks due to injury.

Tampa Bay's second-round pick in 2018, safety Justin Evans, started the final 11 games he played in as a rookie, recording three interceptions, which tied for the team lead and was tied for the third-most among NFL rookies. The Buccaneers also got contributions from wide receiver Chris Godwin, a third-round pick who started the final two games on the season and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 after catching seven passes for 111 yards, including a game-winning 39-yard touchdown. In 2018, Godwin stepped into a more featured role, catching 59 passes for 842 yards and seven touchdowns.

The Buccaneers finished the 2016 season at 9-7, thanks in large part to stellar seasons from Winston and Evans. Winston set franchise records for passing yards (4,090) and passing touchdowns (28), while also becoming the youngest player in NFL history to throw 50 career touchdowns. Evans had his then-best season, earning his first career Pro Bowl selection after finishing the year with 96 catches for 1,321 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdown catches tied his own franchise record (set in 2014) and were tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2016. His 96 catches were the second-most in Buccaneers history and the sixth-most in the league that season, while his 1,321 yards are the third-most ever by a Buccaneers player and ranked fourth in the NFL.

Another major contributor to the team's offense was tight end Cameron Brate, who originally joined the team as a college free agent out of Harvard in 2014. After only playing in five games as a rookie, Brate has become an integral part of the Buccaneers' offense, catching eight touchdowns in 2016 and six touchdowns in each of the past two seasons (2017-18). His 20 touchdowns over the past three seasons are the tied for the second-most in the NFL among tight ends during that timeframe. Brate's production was rewarded with a contract extension during the 2018 offseason.

In 2015, Licht oversaw one of the most important selections in Buccaneers franchise history, as the team held the No. 1 overall pick for the first time since 1987. With that top overall pick, Licht selected Winston, who went on to establish team rookie records in nearly every passing category, including pass attempts (535), pass completions (312), passing yards (4,042), passing touchdowns (22) and passer rating (84.2). Winston was voted Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and earned a trip to the 2016 Pro Bowl, to go along with a selection to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel, working under general manager Steve Keim, who earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from both Pro Football Talk and Sporting News. Licht's first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and SI.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside seven head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Pete Carroll, Lovie Smith, Ken Whisenhunt) and seven who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Smith, Dom Capers and Bruce Arians).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

In 2008 Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. Licht then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the team that won three Super Bowls in four seasons, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

BRUCE ARIANS

HEAD COACH

Bruce Arians was named the 12th head coach in franchise history on January 8, 2019.

Arians is a two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, earning the award in 2012 (Indianapolis Colts) and in 2014 (Arizona Cardinals). He is the only coach in NFL history to earn the award multiple times in a three-year span with different teams and is one of only 12 coaches in NFL history to win the award multiple times.

Upon being hired by Tampa Bay, Arians quickly built a staff of qualified assistant coaches, bringing on a collection of coaches with decades of NFL experience. In building his staff, Arians also put together one of the most diverse coaching groups in the NFL. The Buccaneers are the only team in the league to have three coordinator positions, as well as the role of assistant head coach, filled by minority coaches. In addition, Arians' staff made NFL history by becoming the first to have two female coaches in full-time assistant roles.

Prior to arriving in Tampa, Arians spent five seasons as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17) in addition to a 12-game stint as interim head coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2012), compiling a regular season record of 58-33-1. During that 92-game stretch Arians was a head coach, his 58 wins ranked fourth in the NFL, trailing only Bill Belichick (73), Pete Carroll (63) and Mike Tomlin (59).

Throughout his 25-year NFL career, Arians has worked closely with some of the league's top passers including Pro Bowlers Peyton Manning, Ben Roethlisberger, Andrew Luck and Carson Palmer. As an offensive play-caller, Arians has directed top-10 offenses with three different teams (Arizona, Indianapolis and Pittsburgh) over the last nine seasons of his coaching career.

During his time in Arizona, the York, Pennsylvania native compiled a 49-30-1 regular season record (.619 winning percentage). The Cardinals' 49 wins during that span were the seventh-most in the NFL and the third-most in the NFC. Arians won 50 total games in Arizona (49 regular season, one postseason), finishing his time there as the winningest coach in franchise history. His 49 regular season wins are also the most by any coach in Cardinals history.

Arians posted three seasons with double-digit wins as the head coach of the Cardinals, including tying the then-franchise best with 11 in 2014. The following season, Arizona established a new franchise record with 13 wins, which also featured the team's first-ever postseason bye and second-ever appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

Under Arians, the Cardinals offense set several single-season team records, including points scored (489 in 2015), total touchdowns (59 in 2015), total net yards (6,533 in 2015) and first downs (373 in 2015). Arians also helped coach individual players to some of the best seasons of their careers. In 2015, Cardinals quarterback Carson Palmer set franchise records for passing yards (4,671), passing touchdowns (35), yards per attempt (8.70) and passer rating (104.6) en route to a Pro Bowl selection. In 2016, running back David Johnson established new team records for rushing touchdowns (16), total touchdowns (20) and yards from scrimmage (2,118), while leading the NFL in total touchdowns and yards from scrimmage. Wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald posted the top three seasons for receptions in Cardinals history under Arians and ranked third in the NFL in catches during that span.

Arians came to Arizona after spending the 2012 season with Indianapolis. Hired as the team's offensive coordinator, he also served as the team's interim coach for 12 games while head coach Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia. He led the Colts to a 9-3 record and was selected as the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year. Indianapolis' nine-win improvement (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.

Arians helped the Colts' offense rank 10th in the NFL in yards (362.4 ypg) and seventh in passing yards (258.0 ypg). Rookie quarterback Andrew Luck – the first overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft – made the Pro Bowl and set rookie records for passing yards (4,374) and 300-yard passing games (six). He also established the NFL single-game rookie record for passing yards (433, 11/4 vs. Miami). Luck finished with the then-third-most passing touchdowns by a rookie in NFL history, with 23.

Prior to his time with the Colts, Arians spent eight seasons with the Steelers, five as offensive coordinator (2007-11) and three as the wide receivers coach (2004-06). During his tenure as the offensive coordinator, the Steelers had a 55-25 record, tying Green Bay for the second-best mark in the NFL during that span. Pittsburgh won three AFC North Division titles, two AFC Championships and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLIII over the Cardinals. Arians was also part of the Steelers' Super Bowl XL win as the team's wide receivers coach.

Under Arians' guidance, Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger put together some of the best seasons in team history, establishing a then-franchise record with 32 touchdown passes in 2007, recording a then-team record 4,328 passing yards in 2009 and registering a career-high and Steelers-record 104.1 passer rating in 2007. Roethlisberger earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2007 under Arians.

In 2009, the Steelers' offense became the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Antonio Holmes, Hines Ward) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season.

Before joining the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns (2001-03). He joined Cleveland after spending three seasons with the Colts as the team's quarterbacks coach. Working with offensive coordinator Tom Moore, Arians helped tutor Peyton Manning during his first three seasons in the league and helped him earn Pro Bowl berths in 1999 and 2000.

Arians' first NFL job was with the Kansas City Chiefs, working as the team's running backs coach for four seasons (1989-92). There he helped Christian Okoye to two Pro Bowl selections (1989, 1991). Arians also spent the 1996 season as the tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints.

Arians' coaching career began as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, in 1975, before being elevated to running backs coach in 1977. He spent 1978-80 with Mississippi State as the school's running backs/wide receivers coach before coaching the running backs at Alabama for two seasons (1981-82) under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Arians would later return to Mississippi State (1993-95) and Alabama (1997) to serve as the offensive coordinator for the respective schools. He became one of the youngest head coaches in Division I history when Temple University hired him in 1983 at the age of 30. He spent six seasons coaching the Owls (1983-88).

Born in Paterson, New Jersey, Arians grew up in York, Pennsylvania, and played quarterback at Virginia Tech. He and his wife, Christine, have two children — son, Jake, and daughter, Kristi Anne, as well as a granddaughter, Presley and a grandson, Aiden.

HAROLD GOODWIN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ RUN GAME COORDINATOR

Harold Goodwin enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2019.

Goodwin has spent his past 11 seasons coaching under Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians, first working as an offense assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2007-11), before spending a season as the offensive line coach of the Indianapolis Colts (2012) and most recently working as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator (2013-17).

During his time with the Cardinals, Goodwin helped turn the unit into one of the best in the NFL. The team ranked 32nd in the NFL the season before his arrival and, by the 2015 season, established franchise records for points scored (489), touchdowns (59) touchdown passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237), while leading the NFL in net yards and ranking second in points scored.

Leading that offense was quarterback Carson Palmer, who set franchise records with 4,671 passing yards, 35 touchdown passes and a 104.6 quarterback rating, en route to earning a Pro Bowl berth and being named second-team Associated Press All-Pro. Palmer was sacked only 27 times on 562 attempts, tied for the fourth-fewest allowed in the NFL. Arizona ranked eighth in the NFL in rushing (119.8 yards per game) and scored 16 rushing touchdowns – tied for the sixth-most in the NFL – despite having three different players start at running back.

In 2016, Arizona scored 418 points, the fourth-most in a season in team history, while ranking ninth in the NFL in net yards (5,868) and sixth in points scored. The offense was led by second-year running back David Johnson, who set franchise records and led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,118) and touchdowns (20), while being named to the Pro Bowl and earning first-team AP All-Pro honors. Wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald also earned a Pro Bowl berth after leading the NFL in receptions (107).

As the offensive line coach with the Indianapolis Colts, Godwin helped the team's offense finished 10th in the NFL (362.4 yards per game). During his time with the Steelers, Goodwin was part of the team that won Super Bowl XLIII and advanced to Super Bowl XLV. Working with the Pittsburgh offensive line, Goodwin helped Maurkice Pouncey earn Pro Bowl berth in each of their two seasons working together.

Goodwin began his NFL career as an assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears, spending three seasons with the team (2004-06). Prior to joining the Bears, he spent eight seasons in the collegiate ranks, first working as a graduate assistant/student assistant at his alma mater, Michigan (1995-97), before stint with Eastern Michigan (1998-99) and Central Michigan (2000-03).

KEITH ARMSTRONG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Keith Armstrong enters his first season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2019.

Armstrong spent the past 10 seasons as the special teams coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2008-18). During his time with the Falcons, Armstrong boasted one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only one punt return for a touchdown during that time, tied for the fewest in the league, and allowed only 8.0 yards per return, the third-lowest mark in the NFL during that span.

Atlanta's field goal units under Armstrong were among the best in the NFL, connecting on 87.7 percent of field goal attempts, the third-highest mark in the league, and 99.1 percent of extra point attempts, the second-highest mark in the NFL. Falcons kickers contributed 1,383 points during Armstrong's time overseeing the unit, the fourth-most among any team.

While with the Falcons, Armstrong coached several players to Pro Bowl appearances, with returner Devin Hester making his final career appearance in 2014, kicker Matt Bryant earning his first career berth in 2016 and special teams player Eric Weems being named a Pro Bowl selection and first-team All-Pro by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2010.

Prior to his tenure in Atlanta, Armstrong served as the special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins for seven seasons (2001-07). Similar to his time with Atlanta, the punt coverage units with Miami were some of the best in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the fewest in the league, and they did not allow a punt return for a touchdown, joining the Buffalo Bills as the only teams in the NFL to do so.

Armstrong started his NFL coaching career with the Falcons as the safeties coach in 1994. He held that role for two seasons before being promoted to secondary coach in 1996. Following his first stint with the Falcons, Armstrong spent four seasons with the Chicago Bears (1997-2000).

A native of Fairless Hills, Pennsylvania, Armstrong played collegiately at Temple, under Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians, who held the same role for the Owls. Armstrong began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with Temple (1987), before working with Miami (Fla.) in 1988, Akron in 1989, Oklahoma State from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame in 1993.

TODD BOWLES

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Todd Bowles begins his first season as defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2019.

Bowles joins the Buccaneers after spending the past four seasons as the head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opposing offenses to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their passes against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL.

Four different defensive players earned Pro Bowl berths under Bowles in New York, with cornerback Darrelle Revis and defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson being selected in 2015, defensive lineman Leonard Williams being nominated in 2016 and safety Jamal Adams voted to the game in 2018. This past season also saw Jets return specialist Andre Roberts earn Pro Bowl distinction, along with being named first-team AP All-Pro as a kick returner.

Prior to serving as the head coach of the Jets, Bowles spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), including winning Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and the Associated Press in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals' defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), the fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and the fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for taking the ball away, recording the fifth-most interceptions in the NFL (38) and the most defensive touchdowns in the league, with nine.

While Bowles led the Cardinals' defense, he saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and earn Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) each also earned Pro Bowl selections.

Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012), serving as the team's secondary coach before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Philadelphia finished ninth in passing yards allowed (216.9 per game) that season.

Before joining the Eagles, Bowles worked as the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Miami Dolphins for four seasons (2008-11). In the 2011 season, he was named interim head coach for the final three games of the year, going 2-1. Under Bowles' tutelage, Miami's secondary held opposing quarterbacks to a 58.1 completion percentage over that span, the seventh-lowest mark in the NFL.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bowles worked as the defensive backs coach for the Dallas Cowboys (2005-07), coaching three different players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams).

Hiss NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets, coaching a unit that allowed just 18.3 passing yards per game, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. Following his season in New York, Bowles spent four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's defensive nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). In 2001, the team set a franchise record with 33 interceptions and in 2004, the Browns allowed the fifth-fewest passing yards in the NFL (181.3 per game).

Before coaching in the NFL, Bowles spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Morehouse College (1997) and two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99).

Bowles played collegiately at Temple and, despite going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, played eight years in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins (1986-90; 1992-93) and the San Francisco 49ers (1991). He was a starter on the 1987 Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department.

A native of New Jersey, Bowles and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

MIKE CALDWELL

INSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

Mike Caldwell enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2019.

Caldwell joins Tampa Bay after having spent the past four seasons working as the assistant head coach/inside linebackers coach with the New York Jets under current Buccaneers Defensive Coordinator Todd Bowles, then the Jets' head coach. During Caldwell's time with the Jets, the team posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span. In Caldwell's first season with the Jets, his unit was part of a defense that set a franchise record with just 83.4 rushing yards allowed per game.

Under Caldwell's guidance, Jets linebackers excelled, posting some of the best statistical seasons of their careers. In 2018, Avery Williamson – a free agent addition to the Jets – led the team in tackles, posting a career-high 120, while chipping in 3.0 sacks to go along with career bests in passes defended (six) and forced fumbles (two). The 2017 season saw Demario Davis post a career-best 135 tackles, while establishing a then-career high with 5.0 sacks.

Before his time with the Jets, Caldwell spent two seasons coaching linebackers for the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14). The Cardinals' 2013 unit led the NFL in run defense (84.4 yards allowed per game) while posting the sixth-best overall defense.

Caldwell began his coaching career with the Philadelphia Eagles, working first as a training camp intern (2007) before spending two seasons as a defensive quality control coach (2008-09). He then spent the 2010 season as the Eagles' assistant linebackers coach before being elevated to linebackers coach, a position he held for two seasons (2011-12).

An 11-year NFL veteran, Caldwell played with the Cleveland Browns (1993-95), Baltimore Ravens (1996), Arizona Cardinals (1997), Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2001), Chicago Bears (2002) and Carolina Panthers (2003).

He and his wife, Sue, have three children – two daughters, Sydnei and Saniah, and a son, Simeon. His daughter Sydnei is a freshman basketball player at Arizona State University.

The Browns finished second in the NFL in total punt return yardage and 10th in kickoff touchback percentage, helping the team to their best divisional ranking since 2010.

Before joining Cleveland, Jones spent five seasons (2013-2017) as the special teams coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals, where he worked under Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians. During his time with the Cardinals, Jones helped Justin Bethel earn three consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2013-15) as a special teams player after he led the team in special teams tackles each season. Bethel has also blocked three field goals and was named Special Teams Player of the Week and Special Teams Player of the Month (December) in 2014.

Kicker Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a new franchise rookie record with 114 points in 2014. Last season, he connected on field goals of 60 and 56 yards, the second and third longest field goals in team history, while also kicking his fourth career game winning field goal in Arizona's win at Seattle. In 2015, Catanzaro finished third in the NFL with 137 points, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (140, Neil Rackers). He was named Special Teams Player of the Week following Week 14 in 2015, his third career selection, which is tied for the most "Special Teams Player of the Week" honors by a kicker in team history (Chris Jacke, Bill Gramatica). Catanzaro also had his first two game-winning kicks in his career in 2015, a 32-yarder in Week 11 to beat Cincinnati and a season-long 47-yarder in Week 14 in a victory over Minnesota.

In 2013, P Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line and his 45.7- yard punting average ranked as the third-best single-season total in franchise history. P Drew Butler tied for the NFL lead with 34 punts inside the 20-yard line (Donnie Jones) in 2014 and the Cardinals kickoff coverage unit finished fourth in the league with an average opponent drive starting at the 20.6-yard line.

Jones came to Arizona in 2013 after working in Pittsburgh for six seasons, the first five as assistant special teams coach and then as special teams coach in 2012. In 2012, K Shaun Suisham was 28 of 31 on field goals and KR Chris Rainey had 1,035 kickoff return yards, the third-most in a season in team history.

Jones was instrumental in the development of Antonio Brown, who in 2011 set a franchise record with 2,048 all-purpose yards, with 1,062 of those yards coming on returns. Brown returned his first career TD on a punt return for 60 yards and registered an 89-yard kick return for a TD as well. Dating back to 1941, he became one of just three Steelers players with at least one punt return for a TD and one kick return for a TD in a season. Brown finished the 2011 season with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a returner.

In 2009, the Steelers were the NFL's top kickoff return team with a franchise record 1,581 return yards. Stefan Logan had a team record 1,466 kickoff return yards (1,306 yards-Ernie Mills, 1995). The Steelers also had the NFL's top kick coverage unit during the 2008 season.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Jones spent time at Mississippi State (2004-06), James Madison (2003), Cincinnati (1999-02), British Columbia of the Canadian Football League, Tulane (1995-96), Pittsburgh (1992), Alabama (1990-91, 1981-82) and Temple (1983-88).

Jones, a native of Aliceville, Ala., was a safety and running back at Alabama (1978-80), where he played under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, winning back-to-back national championships in 1978-79.

ANTWAAN RANDLE EL

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Antwaan Randle El enters his first season with the Buccaneers as an offensive quality control coach.

Randle El enjoyed a nine-year NFL playing career with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-05, 2010) and Washington Redskins (2006-2009) as a wide receiver and kick returner. Known for his versatility, Randle El amassed 4,467 receiving yards and 438 rushing yards from scrimmage, while adding 4,316 yards and six touchdowns on kickoff and punt returns. Randle El also holds the NFL's highest all-time passer rating for any player with more than 10 attempts as he completed 22-of-27 career passes for 323 yards and six touchdowns for a 156.1 rating.

That passing prowess was on full display in Super Bowl XL when Randle El connected with Hines Ward on a 43-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the Steelers a 21-10 lead and the game's final score.

Randle El entered the NFL as a second-round pick following a historic career as a quarterback at Indiana. He was the 2001 Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, capping a career that saw him set the NCAA's all-time Division I-A rushing record for a quarterback, become the first player in Division I-A history to account for 7,000 passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards, as well as the first player with 40 passing touchdowns and 40 rushing touchdowns, and finish with the fifth-most total yards in NCAA Division I-A history. The Big Ten's Freshman of the Year Award is named in his honor.

A native of Riverdale, Ill., Randle El was a three-sport star at Thornton High School. He was a 14th-round draft pick of the Chicago Cubs in 1997, but opted to attend Indiana on a football scholarship. At different points in his college career, Randle El was also a member of the Hoosiers' basketball and baseball teams.

NICK RAPONE

SAFETIES COACH

Nick Rapone begins his first season as safeties coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2019.

Rapone was the defensive backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 2013-17. While in Arizona, Rapone worked with cornerback Patrick Peterson, a five-time Pro Bowl choice and a two-time first-team AP All-Pro selection (2013, 2015). Rapone also coached safety Tyrann Mathieu, who earned Pro Bowl and first-team AP All-Pro distinction in 2015.

During Rapone's time with Arizona, the team's pass defense was among the best in the NFL, holding opponents to a 61.0 completion percentage, the ninth-lowest mark in the league, and an 83.2 passer rating, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. The Cardinals were also one of the best teams in the NFL at intercepting passes, with the team's 86 interceptions ranking third during that span and their 14 interceptions returned for touchdowns tying for the league best.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rapone spent over 30 years as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. From 2006-12, he worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Delaware, earning the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year after the Blue Hens led the FCS in scoring defense and ranking fifth in total defense.

A native of New Castle, Pennsylvania, Rapone played collegiately at Virginia Tech (1974-77). While with the Hokies, he played with Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians in 1974, when Rapone was a freshman and Arians was a senior. Arians then worked as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh (1979-80), before going on to East Tennessee State (1981-82). Rapone reunited with Arians at Temple, coaching the Owls' secondary for six seasons (1983-88), while also serving as the team's defensive coordinator (1985-88). Following his time under Arians at Temple, Rapone returned to Pittsburgh (1989-92), then spent two seasons at New Castle (Pa.) High School (1993-94), before four seasons at Connecticut (1995-98). Rapone returned to Temple for a second stint in 1999, working as the school's secondary coach until his tenure at Delaware.

Kacey Rodgers enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2019, where he will coach the team's defensive line.

Rodgers has spent the past four seasons serving as the defensive coordinator of the New York Jets (2015-18), working under Buccaneers Defensive Coordinator Todd Bowles, then the Jets' head coach. The Jets defense under Rodgers and Bowles posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Rodgers helped defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2015, after posting a career-high 12.0 sacks, and helped defensive lineman Leonard Williams – the team's 2015 first-round pick – earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2016. Under Rodgers, Williams posted the fifth-most quarterback hits of any interior defensive lineman (64) from 2015-18.

Prior to his time with the Jets, Rodgers spent seven seasons coaching the defensive line in Miami (2008-14). During his time with the Dolphins, the team posted 287 sacks, the third-highest mark in the NFL, while allowing the eighth-fewest yards per carry (4.02) during that span. Rodgers helped guide defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2012), defensive tackle Randy Starks (2010, 2012) and defensive end Cameron Wake (2010, 2012-14) to Pro Bowl selections. Wake, who also earned three AP All-Pro selections under Rodgers (first team, 2012; second team, 2010 and 2014), ranked third in the NFL in sacks from 2009-14, with 63.0.

Rodgers began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys, first working as the team's defensive tackles coach (2003-04) before taking over as the defensive line coach (2005-07). In four of Rodgers' five seasons in Dallas, the team ranked inside the NFL's top 10 for rush defense, notably finishing sixth in the league in 2007.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Rodgers coached collegiately, first working at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97) before going to Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002).

A native of Humboldt, Tennessee, Rodgers played collegiately at Tennessee. He spent training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 and played for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League in 1994 before retiring.

JOHN SPYTEK

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

John Spytek enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers in 2019 as the Director of Player Personnel.

In his current role, Spytek oversees the day-to-day operations of the college and pro scouting departments for Tampa Bay. He is responsible for administering free agency preparation and evaluating talent throughout the NFL and other professional football leagues. Spytek works closely with Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht regarding the NFL Draft, key free-agent acquisitions and all other personnel decisions.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Spytek spent three seasons with the Denver Broncos, where he worked as Southwest area scout in 2013, before being elevated to national scout, a position he held for two years (2014-15). The Broncos' 37 regular season and 42 overall wins were the most in the NFL over that three-year span, culminating in a Super Bowl 50 victory on February 7, 2016.

Before joining the Broncos, Spytek spent three seasons (2010-12) as the Cleveland Browns' director of college scouting. While with the Browns, Spytek assisted in drafting six players who earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and five players who were selected to a Pro Bowl.

Spytek began his player personnel career working as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, earning a full-time college scouting assistant position in 2006 and spending three years as a college/pro scout from 2007-09. His first job in the NFL was as an operations intern with the Detroit Lions in 2004.

In his career, Spytek has worked with a number of top-level executives and coaches, including John Elway, Andy Reid, Mike Holmgren, Tom Heckert, John Harbaugh & Gary Kubiak.

John and his wife, Kristen, serve as vice president and president, respectively, of the National CMV Foundation (nationalcmv.org). They founded the organization in 2014 to educate families about congenital CMV, a virus that ultimately claimed the life of their 21-month old daughter, Evelyn, in 2014. The couple is also parents to Jack and Thomas.

A native of Pewaukee, Wisconsin, Spytek played linebacker at the University of Michigan from 1999-2002, earning a bachelor's degree in general studies and a master's in sports management.

MIKE BIEHL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Mike Biehl enters his sixth season with Tampa Bay in 2019, working as the team's director of college scouting, where he is responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff.

With the 12th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected defensive tackle Vita Vea, who ranked second among NFL defensive linemen over the final six weeks of the season. Fourth-round pick Jordan Whitehead, chosen 117th overall, played in 15 games as a rookie, tallying 76 tackles – the second-most on the team.

The 2017 NFL Draft saw Biehl, working with General Manager Jason Licht, select six players, with three stepping into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers' first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie. Tampa Bay's second-round pick, safety Justin Evans, started the final 11 games he played in, recording three interceptions, which tied for the team lead and was tied for the third-most among NFL rookies. The final rookie starter was linebacker Kendall Beckwith, a third-round selection who served as the team's primary strongside linebacker. The Buccaneers also got contributions from another third-round pick, wide receiver Chris Godwin, who started the final two games on the season and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 after catching seven passes for 111 yards, including a game-winning 39-yard touchdown.

In 2018, the team saw an even bigger role for second-year players Godwin and Howard. Godwin caught 59 passes for 842 yards and seven touchdowns, ranking second on the team in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns on the season. Howard finished the season ranked fourth among NFL tight ends in receiving yards per game (56.5) and his 16.6 yards per catch were the highest among all qualified tight ends, despite missing the final six games of the season.

In the 2016 NFL Draft, Biehl and Licht selected cornerback Vernon Hargreaves III (11th overall), who started all 16 games for Tampa Bay as a rookie, recording nine passes defended and one interception, while earning PFWA All-Rookie Honors. Biehl and Licht also selected defensive end Noah Spence, who contributed 5.5 sacks and three forced fumbles in his debut campaign.

Biehl assisted Licht in the 2015 NFL Draft, where the team held the first overall pick, used to select quarterback Jameis Winston, who earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection, while setting nearly every rookie passing record in Buccaneers history. The 2015 draft also saw Tampa Bay select tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall), guard Ali Marpet (61st overall) and linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall), all of who earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston. Both Marpet and Smith have been signed to contract extensions in the past year. Since the start of the 2015 season, they have been part of an offense that has recorded the fifth-most yards per game in the NFL (375.3), sixth-most passing yards per game (269.8) and seventh-highest yards per play (5.76) during that span, while ranking third in third-down conversion rate. They also helped block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin – 1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks allowed in the league in 2015.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001-13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008-13), after being promoted from college scout (2001-07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998-2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Paxton, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife, Kim, have two children: son Nathan, and daughter Kendall.

MIKE GREENBERG

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mike Greenberg enters his 10th season with the Buccaneers and seventh as director of football administration, having spent the previous two seasons as the coordinator of football administration, after originally joining the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, groundskeeping, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

In his role as Director of Football Administration, Greenberg has overseen long-term contract extensions for linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans, each of whom have earned Pro Bowl honors during their time with Tampa Bay. Greenberg has also worked on extensions for offensive linemen Ali Marpet and Donovan Smith, both of whom have been starters since joining the team in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Greenberg joined the Buccaneers after working with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and earned a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law on a full academic scholarship in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey.

In 2017, Greenberg was inducted into the John F. Kennedy (Bellmore, New York) High School Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Ilana, have two sons, Hank and Harry. They reside in Tampa.

SHELTON QUARLES

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles joined Tampa Bay's front office. This season, Quarles enters his sixth year as director of football operations, after spending two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his current role, Quarles works directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions.

(2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only three players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber and Lavonte David) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Quarles also served on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (2009-2016) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. He was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles is married to Damaris and the couple resides in Tampa with their daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio.

ROB MCCARTNEY

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Rob McCartney enters his ninth season with the Buccaneers and fourth as director of pro scouting, after being elevated from pro scouting coordinator, a title he held for one season.

As director of pro scouting, McCartney oversees the Buccaneers pro personnel staff and advance reports, along with the evaluation of opponents, pro leagues, free agents and trade prospects.

McCartney spent the 2014 season as a national scout, following two seasons as a pro scout, a title he earned after being elevated from a pro personnel assistant.

While working as a national scout, McCartney was responsible for scouting top college prospects east of the Mississippi River. As a pro scout, McCartney assisted Tampa Bay's pro personnel department, including organizing player workouts.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the player personnel department from 2006-08.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. Rob and his wife Kristi reside in Tampa, along with their daughter, Madison.

SHANE SCANNELL

PRO SCOUT

Shane Scannell enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers and his fourth as a pro scout, after spending the 2015 season as a scouting assistant.

In Scannell's current role, he assists Director of Pro Scouting Rob McCartney with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts and assisting with free agency and college evaluations.

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
DECEMBER 29, 1979
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA — In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate LA territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

SIDELINES

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17
JANUARY 9, 1983
TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS — For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10
DECEMBER 28, 1997
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7

JANUARY 4, 1998

LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY — The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

1999 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
JANUARY 15, 2000
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3 DECEMBER 31, 2000 VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9
VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA — Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

2002 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
JANUARY 12, 2003
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

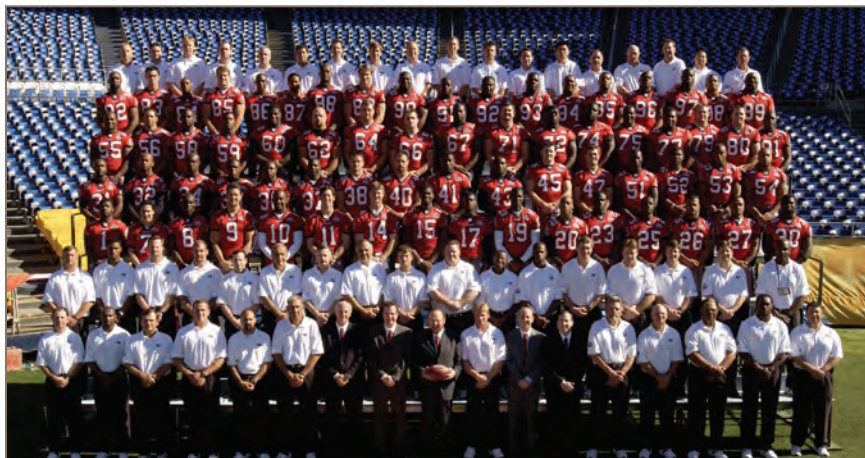

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21
JANUARY 26, 2003
QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO — Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10 JANUARY 7, 2006 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA — Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

2018 IN REVIEW

HISTORY

SIDELINES

In the long-established tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl XXXVII.

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

BUCS SIDELINES

RING OF HONOR

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice — and the team's first-ever draft selection — in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneers player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

MCKAY

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to rank highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon and becoming the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defended, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defended, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defended, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defended, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

A six-time Pro Bowl selection - a franchise record for an offensive player - and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alstott's bruising running style and not-to-be-denied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason lore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children.

Alstott currently serves as the head football coach at Northside Christian School in St. Petersburg, Florida.

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

JOHN LYNCH

As one of the most feared safeties of his generation and one of the most impactful figures in Buccaneers history, it was only a matter of time before John Lynch was enshrined in the team's Ring of Honor. Indeed, the elite defender was granted the honor in 2016, and will be formally inducted in a halftime ceremony on November 3, as Tampa Bay faces the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday Night Football.

Lynch came to the Buccaneers as third-round selection (82nd overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft and, upon arriving in Tampa Bay, he joined a team in the midst of some mighty struggles. Despite four consecutive losing seasons to start his career, Lynch, along with teammates and fellow Ring of Honor members Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, helped form the foundation that would turn the franchise around.

Lynch dedicated himself to his craft, and his hard work paid off. The defensive back played 15 seasons in the NFL, starting 191 of 224 games for Tampa Bay (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He finished his career with 1,277 tackles, 100 passes defended, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, 13.0 sacks and eight fumble recoveries. He also started all 1 postseason contests in which he appeared, tallying 71 tackles, 12 passes defended and two interceptions.

A captain on the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch's name is still prominent in the team's record book. He ranks fifth in games played (164), sixth in games started (132), fifth in tackles (973) and sixth in interceptions (23). He was selected to five Pro Bowls as a Buccaneer and four as a Bronco, and his nine total appearances in the all-star game are tied for second-most in league history amongst career safeties.

Renowned for his hard-hitting style and fearless demeanor, Lynch set the standard for the safety play in Tampa Bay.

Beyond simply his raw numbers, Lynch was consistently recognized as one of the most cerebral players on the field at any given time. Monte Kiffin nicknamed Lynch "The Closer," after noting the defensive back's penchant for late-game heroics – including an interception that sparked a comeback in the 1999 NFC Divisional Playoff Game against Washington and the pick that sealed Tampa Bay's 38-35 win over St. Louis in a 2000 Monday Night Football contest.

In fact, of his 26 career interceptions, 14 were secured in the fourth quarter and 11 of the 14 came when his team was either up or down by seven points or less. Lynch's talent for securing takeaways at such crucial moments ensured that 21 of his 26 picks helped his team win games.

Lynch made an impact off the field as well. He and his wife Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation in 2000, with a mission to develop quality young leaders through its community initiatives, including the Star of the Month, Lynch Family Legacy Scholarships, Salute the Stars and Lynch's Holiday Party. During his career, Lynch received numerous accolades for his work outside the game, being named a three-time Buccaneers Man of the Year, earning the Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2006 and the Bart Starr award in 2005, being selected by teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2001 and twice finishing as a finalist for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, along with numerous other achievements.

Lynch currently serves as a color commentator for the NFL on FOX and has been a semifinalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame for three consecutive years.

MALCOLM GLAZER

Malcolm Glazer, who passed away on May 28, 2014, at the age of 85, purchased the team in 1995 for a then-record $192 million and immediately began one of the most impressive organizational transformations in professional sports. Two years after Glazer's purchase, the Buccaneers broke a 16-year postseason drought in 1997 and would go on to make the playoffs three of the next four seasons.

Determined to turn his team into a Super Bowl champion, Glazer made a bold move that changed the course of the franchise prior to the 2002 season. In a transaction that sent shockwaves throughout the NFL, he hired Jon Gruden away from the Oakland Raiders in exchange for two first-round draft picks, two second-round draft picks and $8 million in cash. Less than 12 months later, in January 2003, he delivered the fans of Tampa Bay their first major professional world championship with a resounding victory over the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

With his first Super Bowl in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,200 square-foot state-of-the-art training center. The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL and that still rings true today. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field.

Glazer also left an equally deep and lasting impact as an advocate for the Tampa Bay community. In 1999, he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has donated millions and reached out to countless thousands in need. He also was a driving force in the negotiations that secured Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa. In 2010, Glazer added to his community-driven legacy with the opening of the Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

JON GRUDEN

Gruden, who served as the team's head coach from 2002-08, guided the Buccaneers to a 12-4 record in his first season, including a first-place finish in the NFC South en route to delivering a Super Bowl victory.

After taking over the Buccaneers, Gruden turned over more than half the roster with new players. Twenty-seven members of the Super Bowl XXXVII team, including five starters on offense, were not on the roster for the team's final game of the previous season. Tampa Bay's 12 regular season wins during that 2002 campaign stand as the most in a single season in franchise history. During his seven years in Tampa Bay, Gruden amassed 57 wins – the most in franchise history -- while his teams made it to the postseason three times (2002, 2005 and 2007). In 2007, he led the Buccaneers to their third NFC South title in six years, becoming the only coach in team history with three division titles.

At the time of his Super Bowl XXXVII victory over his former team, Gruden was the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non-rookie head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl win in his first season with that team.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with quarterback Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continued to grow, marked the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football?! Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep." Gruden was the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, Gruden steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. He led Oakland to division titles in each of his final two seasons (2000-01). He also held various coaching and assistant positions with the Philadelphia Eagles, Green Bay Packers, University of Pittsburgh, San Francisco 49ers, University of Pacific, Southeast Missouri State and University of Tennessee after his 1985 graduation from the University of Dayton where he served as the quarterback of the football team and earned a degree in communications.

After his career with the Buccaneers, Gruden moved into the broadcast booth in 2009 as ESPN's game analyst on Monday Night Football where he has served for the past eight seasons. His father, Jim, served as a professional football regional scout, running backs coach and director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His brother, Jay, is currently the head coach of the Washington Redskins. He and his wife, Cindy, continue living in Tampa and remain involved in a variety of Tampa-based charitable causes.

Dungy, a 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee, amassed a 54-42 regular season record as head coach of the Buccaneers, posting a franchise-best .563 winning percentage and four playoff appearances.

In 1996, the Glazer Family provided Dungy his first head coaching opportunity on any level after spending the previous 15 seasons as an NFL assistant. In his first season leading the team, Dungy's even-tempered approach and strong leadership guided the team to a 6-10 season which included five wins in the team's last seven games. It would prove to be the only losing campaign in his six seasons as head coach.

By the end of his second season, the transformation was clearly underway as Dungy led Tampa Bay to its first winning record since 1982, earning a playoff berth and delivering Tampa Bay's first playoff victory in 18 years. Prior to the 1997 turnaround, the Buccaneers had lost double-digit games in 13 of the previous 14 seasons. In contrast, Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season record below .500. The four playoff appearances in Dungy's six seasons (1996-2001) tied for the third-most in the NFL during that span.

Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of the only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season below .500.

When Dungy brought his defensive expertise to Tampa Bay, he inherited the league's 27th-ranked defense. In his first season, the Buccaneers improved to No. 11 overall. In each of the next five seasons, that unit ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense and points allowed.

Collectively, over Dungy's six-year tenure, the Buccaneers led the NFL on a per game basis in points allowed (17.0), total net yards allowed (286.7) and passing yards allowed (184.1), while allowing the fewest yards per passing attempt (6.14). Dungy's legacy extends beyond statistics and records. Two of his stalwart defensive players, Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, became fellow Hall of Fame inductees, while perennial Pro Bowlers John Lynch (2018 finalist), Ronde Barber (2018 semifinalist) and Simeon Rice (2018 semifinalist) remain on the ballot.

Among Dungy's assistant coaches during his Tampa Bay tenure were future NFL head coaches Jim Caldwell, Herman Edwards, Rod Marinelli, Lovie Smith and Mike Tomlin. On February 4, 2007, while head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, Dungy faced off against Smith's Chicago Bears as the two became the first African-American coaches to reach the Super Bowl. Dungy emerged victorious. Two years later, Tomlin followed in his footsteps when he led the Steelers to a Super Bowl XLIII victory.

Beyond the football field, Dungy's impact can be felt by the work he does through the Dungy Family Foundation. Based in Tampa, the charity assists organizations in all the NFL cities where Dungy played or coached — Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Tampa and Indianapolis — by providing opportunities to those in need through educational, emotional and/or financial support. He also serves as the NFL spokesman for All Pro Dad and is active in Big Brothers Big Sisters and Prison Crusade Ministry, among other philanthropic endeavors.

Since retiring from coaching, Dungy has served as a studio analyst for NBC's Football Night in America and Sunday Night Football since 2009. He has authored numerous books that have earned the distinction of New York Times Best Sellers.

Dungy and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of 10 children and still reside in Tampa.

RONDE BARBER

Barber entered the National Football League as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' third-round selection (66th overall) in the 1997 NFL Draft, and, over the course of his career, developed into one of the most decorated players in franchise history. He played in 241 games with 232 starts for Tampa Bay – both club records – while also recording a streak of 215 consecutive starts, tied for sixth-longest in NFL history. His 200 consecutive starts at cornerback is the most for that position in league history, and his 240 consecutive games played ranks second among defensive players since 1970.

During his career, Barber racked up 1,428 tackles – second in franchise history, behind only linebacker Derrick Brooks – 28.0 sacks, 47 interceptions, eight interception return touchdowns, 243 passes defended, 15 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, and six additional touchdowns on fumble returns and blocked/deflected punts. In 2001, Barber led the NFL in interceptions, picking off 10 passes, a Buccaneers single-season record.

Barber also played in 10 playoff games with nine starts, recording 50 tackles, one sack, two interceptions, one interception return touchdown, 11 passes defended and one fumble recovery. He made one of the most memorable plays in Buccaneers history with his 92-yard interception returned for a touchdown against the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship Game, sending the Buccaneers to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance and an eventual victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions. His 28.0 sacks are second-most all-time among defensive backs, and the most all-time by a cornerback. He tops the Buccaneers' record book with his nine interceptions returned for touchdowns (including postseason), and his 14 total regular-season return touchdowns put him fourth in NFL history.

Barber's on-the-field numbers earned him a myriad of accolades throughout the years, including five Pro Bowl selections, five AP All-Pro team appointments, and nine Player of the Week awards. Barber was also named to the NFL's 2000s All-Decade Team.

Known for his leadership as much as his play, Barber was selected as a team captain for nine consecutive seasons (2004–12), named Buccaneers Man of the Year in 2006 and voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2011.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the NFL.

The stadium, which opened to rave reviews for the 1998 season, is currently in the midst of a multi-phase renovation that is expected to exceed $160 million. The first stage of this project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase was completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and was highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area in excess of 30,000 square feet – at the time, the third-largest in the NFL. Also included was a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations, which was completed in time for the team's 2017 season, included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, a new, 10,000 square-foot team retail store, expansion of the highly successful Hall of Fame Club, and an expansive new home team locker room. The most recent phase of renovations included a complete renovation of the East Stadium Club along with the opening of a new premium sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76 in the East Club atrium entrance.

Some of the stadium's most recognizable features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s vessel and arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew which is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy one of the most unique views in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length 103'
- Ship Weight 43 tons
- Ship Height 78'
- Bow Detail 9'x7'
- Ship Width 32'
- Swords 16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE FAN DECK

Quads A and C feature Guest and Member Relations Headquarters, staffed by employees ready to aid fans with any questions or issues.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

The Buccaneers make their home at AdventHealth Training Center, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

AHTC, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at AdventHealth Training Center covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

Across the hall from the locker room is the players' lounge, which looks out onto the practice fields. The room is decorated with comfortable leather couches and chairs and features a large entertainment center, two custom Buccaneers pool tables, video arcade machines and more.

The lounge provides extra space for players during downtime, whether it's to grab a snack, play pool or video games with teammates, or even grab a quick nap.

INDOOR FACILITY

In addition to the main facility, the new state-of-the-art indoor practice facility was completed prior to the 2017 season. The 100,000-square-foot facility features a full-sized FieldTurf playing surface, has an indoor clearance of 96 feet and seating for up to 3,500 guests.

The space is used frequently for walkthroughs, practices, select training camp viewing sessions and several other major events hosted at AdventHealth Training Center over the course of the year. The facility provides players and coaching staff members with the luxury of escaping Florida's extremely hot and humid conditions and avoid missed practices due to inclement weather.

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at AHTC is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where the head coach addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Brett Greene's crew. Every practice is shot by several 8K Solutions cameras located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

AdventHealth Training Center consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is AHTC's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defended, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Antonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

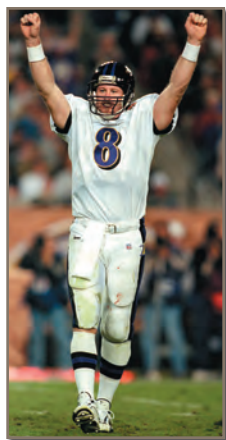

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon

returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL LV

During the 2017 offseason, Tampa Bay was positioned as the top option to host Super Bowl LV in 2021, when it was decided that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria for hosting the game due to stadium construction delays. At the 2017 Spring League Meeting, Tampa Bay was awarded Super Bowl LV, marking its third selection as a Super Bowl host since the Glazer family's purchase of the team.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg — Raymond James Financial. Raymond James has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official wealth management provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James Financial, Inc. is a leading diversified financial services company providing private client group, capital markets, asset management, banking and other services to individuals, corporations and municipalities.

To this day, people interacting with Raymond James for the first time assume that, somewhere in the firm's past, there was a founding father named Ray James. The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments — and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

The same integrity Bob James demonstrated back in 1964 is what the firm continues to strive for today. Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full and holistic understanding of each client's needs and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

"Giving back to the communities in which we live and work" is a phrase that's been part of Raymond James' mission from the beginning, and it's the firm's commitment to putting others first — from clients to neighbors — that was established at the company founding in 1962, and is an integral part of the culture today.

Now more than five decades later, Raymond James and its associates are proud to continue the legacy — started by Raymond James founder Bob James, continued by his son and long-time Chairman and CEO Tom James, and carried out by current Chairman and CEO Paul Reilly — by investing time, money and talents into the communities they serve. It's so much more than tradition — it's who part of who they are.

Together, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up to build, strengthen and grow our communities, specifically through the Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger programs.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 20th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes $1,500 to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $368,500 for local children's hospitals.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James has joined the Buccaneers and local partners to "sack hunger" by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks during the holiday season. Through the generosity and support of Raymond James associates, Tampa Bay area residents and Buccaneers fans, the Sack Hunger food drive has collected more than 140 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium, providing more than 250,000 meals to residents in need.

SUPPORTING CULTURE AND THE ARTS

An appreciation for the arts is ingrained in the culture at Raymond James and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 3,000 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com/art.

As part of the firm's continuing support for the community and arts, Raymond James proudly sponsors art education programs, performing arts and local theaters. By supporting venues and initiatives, the firm celebrates diversity and the melding of cultures, making our city a great place to visit, live and work.

1 Fortune collaborated with their partner Korn Ferry Hay Group on this survey of corporate reputations. Beginning with a universe of about 1,500 candidates; the 1,000 largest U.S. companies ranked by revenue, along with non-U.S. companies in Fortune's Global 500 database that have revenues of $10 billion or more, they then winnowed the assortment to the highest-revenue companies in each industry, a total of 680 in 28 countries. The top-rated companies were picked from that pool of 680; the executives who voted work at the companies in that group. To determine the best-regarded companies in 51 industries, Korn Ferry Hay Group asked executives, directors, and analysts to rate enterprises in their own industry on nine criteria, from investment value and quality of management and products to social responsibility and ability to attract talent. A company's score must rank in the top half of its industry survey to be listed. The ranking may not be representative of any one client's experience, is not an endorsement, and is not indicative of future performance. Neither Raymond James nor any of its Financial Advisors pay a fee in exchange for this award/rating nor is Raymond James affiliated with Fortune.

2 The S&P 500 is an unmanaged index of 500 widely held stocks that is generally considered representative of the U.S. stock market. One cannot invest directly in an index.

3 The Forbes ranking of America's Top Wealth Advisors, developed by SHOOK Research, is based on an algorithm of qualitative and quantitative data, rating thousands of wealth advisors with a minimum of seven years of experience. Ranking algorithm is based on quality of practice, including: telephone and in-person interviews, client retention, industry experience, review of compliance records, firm nominations; and quantitative criteria, including: assets under management and revenue generated for their firms. Investment performance is not a criteria because client objectives and risk tolerances vary, and advisors rarely have audited performance reports. Rankings are based on the opinions of SHOOK Research, LLC which does not receive compensation from the advisors or their firms in exchange for placement on the ranking. Research Summary (as of September 2017): 19,872 Advisor nominations were received, based on thresholds. 4,504 Advisors were invited to complete the online survey, 4,432 Advisors were interviewed by telephone. 923 Advisors were interviewed in-person at the Advisors' location. Final list of the top 250 Advisors was then compiled based upon the quantitative criteria. Raymond James is not affiliated with Forbes or Shook Research, LLC. This ranking is not indicative of advisor's future performance, is not an endorsement, and may not be representative of individual clients' experience. Neither Raymond James nor any of its Financial Advisors or RIA firms pay a fee in exchange for this award/rating.

4 The Bank Insurance & Securities Association (BISA) Technology Innovation Award is designed to recognize leadership in the advancement of the financial services industry's products, services and platforms through technology innovation. This award highlights companies for their commitment to advancements in technology-based solutions for the industry. Candidacy for the 2017 Technology Innovation Award is limited to products launched in 2016 and is open to BISA Leadership members, as well as Associate and Associate Plus members.

5 The FT 400 was developed in collaboration with Ignites Research, a subsidiary of the FT that provides specialized content on asset management. To qualify for the list, advisors had to have 10 years of experience and at least $300 million in assets under management (AUM) and no more than 60% of the AUM with institutional clients. The FT reaches out to some of the largest brokerages in the U.S. and asks them to provide a list of advisors who meet the minimum criteria outlined above. These advisors are then invited to apply for the ranking. Only advisors who submit an online application can be considered for the ranking. In 2016, roughly 980 applications were received and 400 were selected to the final list (40.8%). The 400 qualified advisors were then scored on six attributes: AUM, AUM growth rate, compliance record, years of experience, industry certifications, and online accessibility. AUM is the top factor, accounting for roughly 60-70 percent of the applicant's score. Additionally, to provide a diversity of advisors, the FT placed a cap on the number of advisors from any one state that's roughly correlated to the distribution of millionaires across the U.S. Source: Barron's "Top 1,200 Financial Advisors," DATE: 2017. Barron's is a registered trademark of Dow Jones & Company, L.P. All rights reserved. The rankings are based on data provided by over 4,000 individual advisors and their firms and include qualitative and quantitative criteria. Data points that relate to quality of practice include professionals with a minimum of 7 years financial services experience, acceptable compliance records (no criminal U4 issues), client retention reports, charitable and philanthropic work, quality of practice, designations held, offering services beyond investments offered including estates and trusts, and more. Financial Advisors are quantitatively rated based on varying types of revenues produced and assets under management by the financial professional, with weightings associated for each. Investment performance is not an explicit component because not all advisors have audited results and because performance figures often are influenced more by clients' risk tolerance than by an advisor's investment picking abilities.

The rankings may not be representative of any one client's experience, are not an endorsement, and are not indicative of advisors' future performance. Neither Raymond James nor any of its Financial Advisors paid a fee in exchange for these awards/ratings. Raymond James is not affiliated with any of the organizations mentioned.

WFLA

WFLA, News Channel 8, serves as the Buccaneers' official home for preseason football. In 2019, WFLA is producing and broadcasting all four of Tampa Bay's preseason games: on the road Weeks 1 and 4, first at Pittsburgh and then against the Dallas Cowboys and then at home versus Miami in Week 2 and Cleveland in Week 3. News Channel 8 will also produce and air pregame special prior to each preseason game and anchor Dan Lucas will host "Bucs All Access," a half-hour program that will air Saturday nights at 7 p.m. during the NFL season.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his 16th season in the preseason broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers, who was born in Florida, began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Joining Myers as color analyst is Buccaneers legend Rondé Barber, who will provide Bucs fans with astute analysis gleaned from a storied 16-year NFL career with Tampa Bay. One of the most respected players in team history, Barber retired following the 2012 season and signed with FOX Sports soon after. 2019 marks Barber's seventh-year in the broadcast booth. After the preseason, Barber will work with Kenny Albert to call regular-season games for The NFL on FOX.

Barber, a five-time Pro Bowler and five-time AP All-Pro selection, entered the league as a third-round (66th overall) pick by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft. He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history. Barber was a key component of the Tampa Bay defense that ruled the league in the late 1990s and early 2000s, helping bring the Bay Area a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Dan Lucas, who serves as a sports anchor and reporter for WFLA, will serve as the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He is a Tampa native who graduated from Leto High School and went on to graduate from Florida State University. Prior to his work with WFLA, Lucas worked as weekend sports anchor at WJAC-TV in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, where he covered Penn State and all the Pittsburgh professional sports franchises.
